

ANNOUNCEMENT

Unauthorised advertisements regarding recruitment in ONGC are appearing in some newspapers published from different work centers. The advertisements mention recruitment to various posts in ONGC. Further it has also come to the notice that some fake organizations/individuals are sending job offers to unsuspecting people through e-mail. The public is advised not to be influenced by such fraudulent advertisements or job offers.

As per practice, ONGC advertisements are released by Corporate Communications through empanelled advertising agencies. No advertisements are released directly to the newspapers. For such advertisements, no advance cash payment is made to the publishers.

It is requested that if any individual / organization other than ONGC approaches any newspaper/ news website for publication of recruitment advertisement, the veracity of the advertisement may please be confirmed from the Corporate Communications office of the concerned work centre. Further, if any job offer is received through e-mail, the recipient of the offers may contact Recruitment Section at the following telephone numbers before replying to the individual/organization: 0135-2793934/2793026.
